About the quality of goods found at the large drug and book house of Saur & Balsey, but it is done for your good and the good of your family, if you have any. Too much cannot be said of anything that is good and a public benefit, therefore too much cannot be said in favor of this house, which has proved itself for years a public benefactor and helper in time of sickness and distress, and when in need of goods which go to brighten and make comfortable your homes.

The store of Saur & Balsey has become almost a by word in every home in this and adjoining counties, and their reputation is known far and near. This has been built up during a business course which has been in operation for over a quarter of a century in Napoleon, which has not only been successful in every way, but a marvel of prosperity from a business point of view. This enviable record has not only been made to redound to the benefit of the proprietors but they share it with their customers, by selling them goods at the lowest possible prices.

The finest line of toilet articles in this part of the state can be found at the store of Saur & Balsey. Soaps, perfumes, brushes, combs, and every article known to the toilet. Fancy stationery in endless variety, and all supplies for town and country schools, such as books, pads, pencils, slates, etc.

Their drugs are fresh and pure, their medicines of the best concoctions in the market, and intended for both man and beast. The human system at this season of the year not only needs attention, but also the system of your stock. Look after the welfare of your stock as well as the welfare of yourself.

The wall paper department of this house is the most complete in this section of the State. As is also their paint and oil department. As this is the season of the year to brush up and brighten the appearance of your homes, you can do no better than by selecting your supplies at the store of Saur & Balsey. A fine line of window shades and decorations.

And if there is any one thing above another in which this firm prides itself, it is in their assortment of paints, oils and varnishes. They handle none but the best brands in the market, and when they sell you a supply, you can rely upon it that the goods are the best. Their paints and oils have given the best of satisfaction for a long series of years; they have been tested and not found wanting. When in need of paints and supplies, call on Saur & Balsey, Napoleon, O.

[For the Northwest.] The Deacon's Philosophy.

The country store of Jacob Wright was filled with men and smoke. For farmers gathered there, at night, to chat and spit and joke. And to discuss the latest plot. To break the rich man's ring. And call the government a sham. For fostering such a thing.

"I tell you what," said Deacon Brown, as he drew down his hat. "Let's change the topic, if we can. For politics are flat. Compared with turkey and mince pie. On leading festive board. And songs which will warm our hearts. In praise unto the Lord."

"Then let our tongues with kindness sway, Leave all mean things undone. Because, my friends, Thanksgiving day Dawns with turkey and mince pie. And as we eat our blessed food, Let's pray for those in need. For recollect that God, so good, Has blessed our soil with bread."

"What you just said," quoth Farmer Star, "But turkey and all such Don't go with us, for we know Thanksgiving for the rich. And we are all so all-right poor. No all this stuff which you did say. Because our wheat is selling low And so our hay and corn."

"The summer, it was hot and dry From July until fall; It rained us flat, and we can buy Our grub and that is all. No all this stuff which you did say. I can't do and won't try. How can I, when I'm short o' hay And corn and out and rye."

"I guess your heart's swell with praise, That man's a dear your song. If we see a goodly crop, And every pig will grow. That you say was just and meet To meet the winter's need. As worthy of a shout of praise— A few kind words and deeds."

"I praise the Lord because, my friends, His love is seen in all. Because the sun's warm arm's do come Upon the great and small; Because the man the sheriff sent, Could not save him from the law. Take everything, I tell content, He left my head and wife."

"I have a turkey, nice and fat, Also some nice mince pie. And I invite you, Farmer Star, To dine with wife and I. And now I say your wife and you To come and eat with me; The food you've stowed away To feast your wife and see."

"I own you're right," said Farmer Star, "Because the sun's warm arm's do come Upon the great and small; From what I said; And now I say your wife and you To come and eat with me; The food you've stowed away To feast your wife and see."

"I know I've been a mean, harsh man, Unworthy o' my mate, You've made me see where I was wrong. I've got the virtue, you will come. I'll take you in my sled, And bring you home at set o' sun." "We'll come," the Deacon said. —LEWIS H. MORROW.

Paulding Murder!

MORE CONCERNING THE BRUTAL CRIME.

A NEGRO PREACHER ARRESTED

On Suspicion of Knowing Something of the Murder.

VAN WERT, O., Nov. 8.

At this writing there are no new developments in the Paulding murder case. The reports that two more prisoners had been caught here is not true. The three prisoners now in jail are all keeping up a bold exterior. The opinion at Paulding seems to be that young Hart is the guilty person. One thing is known, and that is that the citizens of Paulding county are no longer excited to mob violence to such an extent as will lead them to touch an innocent party. But they are no less determined that the guilty suffer and when the murderer of those two children is found, his life will have to be well guarded if the mad insanity which sways mobs shall not cheat the law.

The sheriff of Paulding county was here last night. If he knows any thing new in the case, he keeps it to himself. The story of bloody clothing having been found in Hart's home, lacks confirmation. The three prisoners will probably be taken secretly to some place on the Paulding line, and arraigned soon if no new developments occur.

Opposite Court House.

Well, well! It makes me plumb sick to think how foolish I have been in years past for buying my clothing of Tom, Dick and Harry, at exorbitant prices, when Hahn sells so cheap.

PAULDING, O., Nov. 9.—To-morrow afternoon Hart, Cain and Brindle, the three prisoners, will be brought from Van Wert and arraigned for the murder of Elsie and Ashby Good. It was thought that the preliminary hearing would not take place here on account of mob violence, but Sheriff Stanley has determined to have them tried here.

The inquest, which was begun yesterday morning, as still in progress. It is being conducted behind closed doors, and all of yesterday was taken up with the examination of eight or nine witnesses, including the father of the murdered children. But one witness was admitted at a time, and the whole investigation is conducted with the proper secrecy. It is doubtful if the inquest will be completed to-day, and it may be continued over to-morrow morning.

The feeling is certainly growing that Cain and Hart are the guilty men. So far every thing points to them. They were together Sunday, and the chain of evidence seems to become more complete every hour. It is doubtful if a third party was implicated. Evidently the county commissioners think not, for they have not offered a reward for the capture of other suspects.

There is considerable talk of lynching. In fact, it is generally conceded that if the evidence against the prisoners is strong enough to make it certain they are the right men, a mob will at once organize and proceed to the last act in this awful tragedy. For the name of Ohio and Paulding county it is to be hoped law and order will prevail.

PAULDING, O., Nov. 10.—Interest in the Good murder continues unabated and there is a growing feeling against the prisoners in the Van Wert Jail.

Sheriff Stanley intended to bring the prisoners here for a preliminary hearing today but this morning decided not to and the hearing has been postponed indefinitely. It is now thought the suspects will be brought into the county and given a hearing before some Justice living in the southern portion of the county.

Those in a position to gauge public sentiment say that if the prisoners, Hart and Cain were brought here to-day they would surely be lynched, as the majority of the people in this locality firmly believe they are the guilty parties.

The fourth arrest passed this morning and Dr. Merritt, colored, is now confined in the jail. Merritt came here a few months ago from Dedans and has been staying at Brindle's. It is not believed he is implicated in the murder directly, but suspicious points strongly to his knowing something about the tarred rope the murdered children's hands were tied with. Merritt's actions have been queer to say the least, and the officers think he can throw some light on the subject. He protests his innocence and claims he knows nothing of the crime. If anything develops to connect him with the crime he will be taken to Van Wert for safe keeping. The officers of this place and several detectives are working on the case and those who committed the foul crime, almost without a parallel in history will be brought to justice. The better the evidence and claims he is against mob violence, but the people may yet save the county the expense of a trial.

Kindergarten stamped mats for children to work. HORN & NORDEN.

An exchange says roller skating is likely to come in again, after having lain quietly in the grave for several years. The cause of the renewed work is the pneumatic skate, a genius having fitted pneumatic tires to an arrangement that can be buckled to the foot. On a fair road, it is said, a speed of from ten to twelve miles an hour can be attained comfortably, and hills can be mounted or descended with a little exertion as attends the riding of a cycle. The weight of a pair of these skates is only 2½ pounds, so that they are readily portable when not in use, and the wheels are 4½ inches in diameter, furnished with two tires, giving a total diameter of about 7½ inches.

Two Sections From the School Laws.

We have been requested to reproduce the following sections of the Ohio school laws:

SECTION 4022. The board of any district may contract with the board of any other district for the admission of pupils into any school in such other district, on such terms as may be agreed upon by such boards; and the expense so incurred shall be paid out of the school funds of the district sending such pupils. [83 v. 243, § 64.] SEC. 4023. The board of education of any township, district, sub-district, special or joint sub-district within the state of Ohio, shall permit children of school age, who reside further than one and a half miles from the school where they have a legal residence, under the school laws of Ohio, to attend the nearest sub-district, special or joint sub-district school; and the capita current expense of running the school in the district where such children attend, for the term so attending, shall, upon demand of the board of education of such district, be paid by the board of education of the district where such children have a legal residence. The per capita cost of running the school in all cases shall be the quotient produced by dividing the total current expense of running such school, by the total number of children of school age in such district.

Resolutions of Respect to the Memory of Wm. Barr.

WHEREAS, In the dispensation of Providence, it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst our beloved comrade, Wm. J. Barr, who departed this life Oct. 23rd, 1894, after a lingering illness. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That in his death Choate Post lost a faithful and worthy member, his wife and children a kind and affectionate husband and father, and the community one of its best and most respected citizens.

Resolved, That as comrades of the A. R. we will ever cherish his memory in happy and grateful remembrance and that we tender to his widow and fatherless children our warmest and tenderest sympathies in their affliction and bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to each of our deceased comrades and also be entered upon the records of the Post and published in the Napoleon newspapers. Submitted in F. C. and L. D. M. FRANKS, LEVI DOLNEY, J. O. BARR, Committee.

Concerning the "Standard time", as used by railroads, and which is the legal time in Ohio and adopted in many cities and towns in place of "local time", a prominent official of Washington states that there is no such a thing as "sun time." He says: "Some people have been talking to me of sun time, and I have said to them that there is no such thing as sun time, as they understand it. Sun time is not used in this country, or indeed anywhere except in navigation. What is used is mean time, or the time estimated from an imaginary body revolving around the earth daily. If a man undertook to use sun time his watch would not be the same any two successive days. Some of the days are longer and some of them shorter. The difference between the mean time and the actual sun time is sometimes as much as sixteen minutes. At sea the masters of vessels take the sun time by observation, and by computing the difference between it and the mean Greenwich time, as given by their chronometers, determine their longitude."

The Constitutionality of the new jury law is questioned, for in the case of the State of Ohio vs. the Norwalk Gas and Light Co., the attorneys for the defense have raised two interesting questions, touching on the constitutionality of the new jury law. They claim the law is unconstitutional in that the jury commissioners, whom they say are county officers, were appointed and not elected, as the constitution provides that all county officers shall be. The decision will be looked for with much interest, as lawyers generally believe the law to be unconstitutional.

FIRE BRICK PAVING.

Washington and Clinton Street Residents Agitating the Question.

If we wish to keep up our reputation of having the finest little city in northwestern Ohio we want to be up with the times on the paving question. Gravel makes a good country road but is hardly the thing to use on the streets in town. From the number we have heard expressing themselves, the inference is drawn that a fire brick pavement will be a reality in not such a great while. Clinton street certainly needs some kind of a street pavement and if the residents put in one, Washington street will have to follow suit.

A pavement of the best fire brick, 18 feet wide, can be put in at a cost of about $1.05 per square yard including curbing. This would make the cost per front foot, a little over $1, which is certainly cheap enough for a good, staple paving.

MEYER KNOWS HOW!

He Tells People What he is Doing and They Come to Him from Everywhere.

There is scarcely a person in this locality but that has heard of "Meyer, the clothing man." His name and fame has reached every home. Every body knows him, but they know his business better. The secret of his success is ceaseless advertising, and you never see his name out of the paper. People come from the remote corners of the county, and other counties, to buy clothing of Meyer. They know him from seeing his name and business in the paper, in short they have heard of him. Some business men are afraid the public will find out what they are doing, but Meyer is not that kind; he wants them to know all about his business. He knows from experience that it pays. His enormous sales tell the whole story. Don't fail to see Meyer, the clothier. 3t

Are You Prepared for Winter?

One of the necessary things to do, especially if you have a family, is to provide your home with good reading matter. The winter evenings are long and lonesome unless you have some means provided to entertain your children. Nothing will be more beneficial than good books, papers and magazines, which are so very cheap that almost every family can afford to have them. Saur & Balsey have just replenished their Book and News Depot with a fine line of all kinds of reading matter suitable for the youngest as well as the old, and it is here where you can order any book, paper or magazine published in the world and get it at publishers' lowest prices. If they do not already have it on hand, if you want a good paper or magazine by the year, this is the time to subscribe at Saur's Book Store, if you would secure the benefit of the lowest club rates.
